

Friends of the Environment

Carmel Sustainability Fair

May 3, 2009

Friends of the Environment

FOTE
Educating for Sustainability

Goals of the Fair

- To promote sustainable practices;
- To bring together the community to talk about sustainability;
- To provide a forum for organisations in the field of sustainability to promote their products and services;

Friends of the Environment

FOTE
Educating for Sustainability

Venue and Timing

- Held on Sunday
May 3 at Carmel
Adventist College;
- Timed to coincide
with the annual
Bickley Harvest
Festival;

Friends of the Environment

FOTE
Educating for Sustainability

Stalls

- Agriculture Department;
- Compost WA;
- Backyard Aquaponics;
- Permaculture Association of WA;
- Nature Reserve Preservation Group;
- Elixir Raw Honey;
- Xquisit Organics;
- Nature Direct;
- Shire of Kalamunda;
- FOTE;
- Men of the Trees;
- Solar Unlimited
- Sun Grid Solar;
- Jonathon Thwaites;
- Orange Valley Nursery;
- Kanyana;
- Re-Plants;
- Sustainable Energy Now;
- Organic Valley;
- Water Installations and Greywater Reuse Systems
- School Poster and Pumpkin Displays

Friends of the Environment

FOTE
Educating for Sustainability

Activities

- Talks on a range of sustainability topics including permaculture, composting, organic gardening, climate change, renewable energy;
- Judging of school competitions:
 - Biggest pumpkin;
 - Sustainability Posters;
- Live entertainment;
- Kids play area;
- Devonshire teas and other food and beverages provided by School P&F;

Some Photos from 2008

Friends of the Environment

FOTE
Educating for Sustainability

